Notifications via email

We will need your email address to send email notifications, such as:

- reminders of the imminent end of the loan period for any borrowed media
- notifications informing you that reserved media are ready for collection
- to inform you when the loan period has been exceeded (first and second warning)

In accordance with Section 13 (2) of the German Telemedia Act (Telemediengesetz), you have the right to withdraw your consent to the use of your email address at any time.

When registering minors, parents/legal guardians agree to the above and confirm their willingness to assume responsibility for any claims arising from the minor's use of the library in accordance with the usage and fee regulations.

By signing below, you indicate that you have read, understood and accepted Bremen Public Library valid usage and fee regulations and you agree to your data being processed in accordance with Section 4 of the usage and fee regulations in the currently valid version.
